1. How Has Leo Varadkar AKA Leo The Leak Been Performing Since The "Pandemic" Kicked Off

- 2. Leo Varadkar is an Irish Fine Gael politician and physician who has served as Tánaiste and Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment since June 2020 and Leader of Fine Gael since June 2017
- 3. He is also a member of the Young Global Leaders group which is a group set up by the World Economic Forum. Other World leaders such as Sanna Marin from Finland and Emile Macron from France are also members as is Mark Zuckerberg from Facebook.
- 4. Their logo is "The Forum Of Young Global Leaders Shaping The Future". The Forum of Young Global Leaders is a community with the vision, courage and influence to drive positive change...

5. Leo has now obviously graduated from the kindergarten Young Global Leaders with 1st class honours to the World Economic Forum where he can now wear his big boy pants and play with the heavy hitters in their sandpit.

6. Whether you like Leo or not he did give a very self-assured performance in addressing the nation about Covid back on Paddy's day, March 17th 2020

7. Most of the nation probably felt they were in good hands as the speech was pretty impressive by all accounts. None of us knew what a "Pandemic" was or understood "lockdowns" as it was all so new. The majority of the population trusted him.

How times have changed.

8. Leo even lead the way showing what a great leader he was by rejoining the medical register in order to work on the frontlines to help out with the "crisis".

Except it was all a total ploy. Virtue signalling at its finest, it was all about optics.

9. Leo was doing what he does best, fooling the public. He was lapping up the photo opportunities and proving to the nation that "we are all in it together".

That has patently proved not to be the case

- 10. Although Leo was happy to tell everybody to "socialist" distance he was quite happy to break his own rules. He was caught having his own "Lark In The Park" cavorting with his nearest and dearest whilst displaying his "toned" six pack man bod for the world to see.
- 11. One rule for Leo and one for everyone else. John McGuirk rightly said "Varadkar no longer has moral authority to tell anyone to stay at home"

Varadkar has constantly broken his own rules throughout

12. Leo is nothing if not original. In another address to the nation he displayed his love of Lord of The Rings by quoting word for word from it. Apparently Pascal O Donohoe is a big LOTR fan. Leo is however our very own Gollum. (Must watch video)

13. There were some rather interesting and mischievous comments below the video as well and what others thought of it. What should be taken from the video though is the fact that he has been taking the Irish for fools since the outset.

14. The film references didn't stop there though. He even made a reference to the Mean Girls. Orla Muldoon in the IT said it felt like an 'in joke' about something that was no laughing matter. She had hit the nail on the head without knowing why.

15. The words from the movie he used were "The limit does not exist". What could he have been referring to. Lockdowns, Restrictions, Rules, Regulations.

He loves to talk in riddles and code

16. Varadkar had effectively requisitioned public airtime for a national address and used it to tell a private joke. This was the equivalent of whispering a joke to a small crowd by the water cooler that you don't share with other colleagues.

Varadkar has done this since March

17. He even then had the audacity in October saying that he stood in solidarity with the people of Belarus and their calls for democracy and freedom.

Maybe he missed the fact that there is no democracy or freedom in Ireland then and now

18. What actually happened was he probably got instructions from his Masters to put the tweet out. Belarusian president Aleksandr Lukashenko told the Belarusian Telegraph Agency BeITA that the World Bank & IMF offered him a bribe of $940 million in the form of "Covid Relief Aid"

19. The purpose of this money was for Belarus to implement lockdowns. They refused and are now living normally. Who would have thought that a "tyrannical dictatorship" would have more freedoms than Ireland. The tables have well and truly turned

20. But it isn't just Covid that Leo is tied up in. In November 2020, a complaint was made against Mr Varadkar over an alleged leak of a confidential government document.

The leak itself happened in April 2019, back when Varadkar was Taoiseach.

21. He is understood to have sent details of a confidential €210m GP contract to his associate Dr Maitiú Ó Tuathail - the head of the National Association of General Practitioners (NAGP) ## irishpost.com/news/what-did-...

22. The contract that was leaked contained details of a deal the government had tentatively agreed with the Irish Medical Organisation (IMO) - a rival organisation to the NAGP.

He will undoubtedly get off scot-free like he always does

23. Leo likes to be involved in leaks hence the moniker "Leo The Leak". Even back in October 2020 NPHET had recommended that Ireland move to the highest restrictions possible, Level 5, which was subsequently leaked to the press

irishtimes.com/news/politics/...

24. Varadkar then attacked CMO Tony Holohan and NPHET and refused to apologise for the blistering attack.

The truth is it was all smoke and mirrors. Varadkar and NPHET are all working in tandem to the plan being handed to them.

irishmirror.ie/news/irish-new...

25. Sometimes though Leo does throw us a bone or a crumb. Maybe its guilt. Maybe he is covering his arse for any potential blowback that will come down the line. He knows that the Govt and NPHET are lying about the Covid deaths and the figures involved.

- 26. But then he reverts to type and gaslights the Irish public. He delights in taunting them. He says that if everyone follows the rules then it will be ok, if you don't then it's on you. That's exactly what abusers say in domestic violence, and people are readily agreeing to it
- 27. Varadkar & Micheal Martin proved this point by chuckling throughout a news conference as hundred of thousands of people are already on the breadline.

He loves to humiliate and mock, he actually gets pleasure from it.

28. "Duper's Delight" is when you take pleasure in duping the public. Varadkar and the way he behaves definitely need to be clinically assessed by a Psychiatrist.

Psychopaths and Duping Delight – Psychopaths In Life

Duping delight is a particular micro expression a person will display that betrays a sense of enjoyment they are getting out of controlling and deceiving another ...

- 29. Varadkar has also shown his true colours in the last week when he appeared on national TV. He informed us that we will need a vaccination passport to access travel, theatre etc...
- 30. There will also be increased fines for exceeding the travel limit will increase to €2000. He also inferred children would be subjected to repeated medical testing at schools

31. Leo is quite the bit of work and the majority of the population are still hanging on his every word. He plays both sides of the coin but is only interested in himself. Time that people woke up to see him for what he really is.
