1  Q. Want to know when Klaus Schwab first appeared in ?  1/6

Please bear in mind that the photos below are from an archive 46 yrs old so the quality is poor.

2□Ans 🖱️ Tuesday June 11th 1974. According to The IT & an ad taken out by Aer Lingus 46 yrs ago, Mr Schwab was on an Aer Lingus flight. Is it the same Mr Schwab who runs the World Economic Forum that was set up in 1971 or is it someone entirely different?

Father Carey, also a native of Dublin, was ordained in 1941 and after two chaplaincies became assistant priest in Fairview in 1944. He was appointed curate in Eadestown in 1947, St. Joseph's (Church Road) in 1952, Dundrum in 1955 and Marino in 1965.

3 Was he already sowing the seeds all those years ago for what the world is witnessing today ? I'll leave that up to you to decide. You'll have to picture him without any hair as back in the day he did have some 🙄

4 However, he is quoted as saying about Aer Lingus “They seem to know instinctively when to fuss over you, and when you would prefer to be left alone”. Wouldn't it be nice if he just left everyone alone to get on with their lives instead of unnecessary interference.

They seem to know
instinctively
when to fuss
over you, and when you
would prefer to be left alone.

Klaus Schwab, German

5 You could argue that he may have been flying to or from a different destination. Back in the early 70s though practically all Aer Lingus flights only flew out of and back to Dublin. So the chances of Mr Schwab being in Ireland are pretty strong.

6 So if it is him, what was he doing in ? Who was he meeting and how long was he here for? Wouldn't it be great if someone still had those records!

Please follow me and RT. I promise it will be worth your while. All  will be interesting. That I can guarantee 😊
